CALL FOR PAPERS

14th Biennial Conference of the Czech Economic Society

November 27–28, 2026

Prague University of Economics and Business (VŠE)
W. Churchill sq. no. 4, Prague 3, Czech Republic

Invites submissions from all fields of economics and finance

SUBMISSIONS

Submissions of full papers or of sections of papers on specific topics are invited. Please submit papers in English (PDF format) to conference@cse.cz no later than October 4, 2026. Submissions of complete sections devoted to specific topics are possible. Notification of acceptance (or rejection) will be sent in mid October. Presenters may be asked to serve as discussants.

Because the conference also serves as a local job market in economics, the early-stage researchers and job market candidates are particularly encouraged to submit their best work.

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION

Persons wishing to attend the conference and presenting authors may register via the conference website at: https://www.cse.cz/page/bienalni-konference. Registrations of non-presenting participants are also welcome. There is no registration fee for members of the Czech Economic Society who register before November 1, 2026. To become a member, please follow the instructions at https://www.cse.cz/en/page/membership-and-application. After November 1, 2026 and for non-members, the conference fee is 1,000 CZK. Institutional members of the Czech Economic Society may nominate participants who will attend at no charge.

The Czech Economic Society offers free conference registration and two year membership for students presenting their papers. Please, follow the instructions provided on the conference website.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Lawrence Christiano
(Northwestern university)

Alfred W. Chase Professor
Lawrence Christiano is a Fellow of the Econometric Society, and a research associate of the National Bureau of Economic Research. His research has been focused primarily on the problem of determining how the government's monetary and fiscal instruments ought to respond to shocks over the business cycle.

Zacharias Sautner
(University of Zurich)

Professor of Sustainable Finance
Zacharias works on sustainable finance, ESG, climate finance, and biodiversity finance. Through his research, he provides insights on how finance can contribute to a more sustainable future. He is also Senior Chair at the Swiss Finance Institute, an Associate Editor at the Review of Financial Studies, Management Science, and Journal of Financial and Quantitative Analysis, and an advisor of the European Commission and asset management companies on sustainable finance issues.

The Czech Economic Society is an association of people working or interested in the area of economics. Its main mission is to enhance the development and general knowledge of economics in the Czech Republic in ways that respect and support a plurality of opinions and autonomous evolution of individual schools of economics.

The conference is supported by the Council of Scientific Societies of the Czech Republic.
